TEST CASE TO WAIT TURN

Question of Jurisdiction Over Conduit Road Comes Up in November.

The powers that be have opted that the Lutz test case, filed to ascertain whether or not Marshall Collins and Mayor Garrett have jurisdiction over Conduit road, will have to bide its time, and cannot be called in the circuit court of Montgomery county until the regular November term.

An earnest effort was made by the attorneys for Mr. Lutz and other Washington automobilists to have the case called as special, thus affording an early solution of the problem. To this end a conference was held yesterday afternoon in Rockville between Mayor Garrett, State Attorney Robert Peter, and Attorneys A. E. L. Leckie, G. L. Baker, and Blackstone, who represented the automobilists.

At its conclusion, State's Attorney Peter announced that he could not arrange for an early hearing of the matter, and that the case must take its own turn.

HELD FOR BURNING BABY: TWO WOMEN ARE ACCUSED

PATERSON, N. J., July 27.—Mrs. M. Martin, wife of the trainer of the New York Americans, and Mrs. Hal Chase, wife of the first baseman, have been arrested and charged with attempting to conceal the death of the infant daughter of Mrs. Martin.

It is charged that the two women tried to cremate the body in a bonfire. Mrs. Martin was charged with having the ashes taken, on inspection, she discovered to be an infant's body.

Nine independent breweries of St. Louis have combined with a capital stock of $5,000,000. This does not imply that beer is to go up in the Missouri metropolis, presumably it will go down in the conventional way.—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

Everyone is a "bargain-hunter." The financier who buys a whole issue of municipal bonds is looking for a bargain, no less than the housewife who studies the store ads before she buys. Even if it is "second-hand," if it's still useful, a want ad will find a cash buyer for it.
